This educational card is designed to teach the Spanish digraph 'ch'. At the top, a row of colorful squares (red, orange, yellow, green, blue, purple) serves as a decorative header. Below this, on the left, are four brown chocolate bars. To their right, a large 'C' is written in red, followed by a 'h' in black, separated by a vertical line from another 'h' in black. Above the 'C' is a long horizontal arrow pointing left, with a small vertical line and a dot at its right end. Below the 'Ch|ch' is the word 'chocolate' in black, with the 'ch' in red. In the center, the red letters 'ch' are shown with five arrows pointing to a list of vowels: 'a', 'e', 'i', 'o', and 'u'. To the right of each vowel is the corresponding digraph: 'cha', 'che', 'chi', 'cho', and 'chu'. The digraphs have the 'ch' in red and the vowel in black. The card is framed by a black border with the text 'MATERIAL DIDACTICO DAYETAS' at the top and bottom, and 'Material Gratuito' on the right side.
